2013 Annual Report

Executive Director Report

I would like to begin with a reminder to you that GMHA is a 501(c)(3) and that it was founded in 1926 by a group of horse enthusiasts who were visionary in recognizing that, if they did not work together to preserve and grow their community and their sport, no one would. This vision was revisited in May when the board collaborated in two strategic planning sessions and came away with a unanimous message: the future of GMHA is “Better not Bigger”. The mission statement was simplified and updated to read: “GMHA is dedicated to providing and maintaining opportunities for educational and competitive activities for diverse equestrian disciplines; emphasis is placed on equestrian trails preservation, horsemanship and youth education”.

I know from feedback I get that some of you feel that GMHA has lost sight of its’ original purpose, but I can tell you that it has not. Every penny we raise over and above the operating costs (such as insurance, onsite EMT’s, and property taxes!) goes towards maintenance of the site, and trails, so that they continue to exist for future generations.

Nowhere is this commitment to our mission more evident than in the GMHA easement program. This year alone Cyndy Kozara has worked to secure 14 new trails bringing the total of trails protected by easement to 23. As a ‘Horse Association’ we cannot easily legally secure multi-use trail easements but we have encouraged compatible user groups, such as snowmobilers and hikers, to secure their own easements on the ‘GMHA’ trails. And we are very proud that the educational aspect of our mission has benefited so many throughout the year. Every event run at GMHA motivates and encourages equestrians to strive to be better horsemen and women. In addition, Wheel and Ridge Runners, Junior Horsemanship Clinic, USEA Adult Camp, CVDA Camp, USEA Young Riders Camp, Pony Club rallies, the new Festival of Eventing clinic, and the Lucinda Green clinic provide targeted education to diverse groups. Attendance has been high in 2013, and the feedback has been overwhelmingly positive regarding the quality of instruction, the camaraderie of riding at GMHA, and the general enjoyment of coming to the Woodstock area.

The 2013 pre-season buildup was somewhat nerve-racking. GMHA staff and board had to adapt to the a new Executive Director; Marty Hunt retired after 4 years of committed service to GMHA, including guiding the rebuilding of the facilities following Tropical Storm Irene and numerous other improvements. Marty was a hard act to follow. Secondly, GMHA was committed to the installation of the new geotextile-sand footing in all the arenas, a process which was initially hampered by the snow which hung around much longer than was convenient! The first show of the year, the CVDA Critique Day and Dressage Schooling Show for the continued use of their beautiful property

for our events.

Scholarship Funds

A total of $8,250 was generated from donors for the purpose of providing financial assistance to twelve qualifying students from the New England area, to participate in the Junior Horsemanship Clinic. Because of this scholarship money, these students from across New England were able to attend the Junior Horsemanship Clinic with their horses. We hope that future grants and donations will allow us to continue supporting young riders.

Eileene Wilmot Award

Eileene Wilmot and her husband Peyton purchased Birch Hill Farm in 1950 and lived there for nearly 40 years. Eileene was a lifelong supporter of the sport of eventing and strongly advocated for supporting young people. In her memory, Birch Hill Farm generously sponsors an award which goes to the three top-placing riders competing in the Junior Preliminary division of the GMHA Festival of Eventing August Horse Trials. This year Katie Lichten took the first place $900 check, Emily Fields was awarded $600 for second, and $500 went to third place rider Caroline Martin.

New for 2014 – Birch Hill Youth Excellence Award

Starting in 2014, Birch Hill Farm will be offering a new award worth $2000 dollars in prize money to Junior riders competing at Training Level in USEF recognized horse trials. To be eligible for this award, riders must submit their three best scores, two from GMHA events, and one from any other event in USEA Area 1. Winners will be encouraged to use the awards to further their own and/or their horses' training with a view to becoming a more accomplished event rider.

had to be postponed and we were grateful to CVDA for their understanding and continued support.

Arena-based events kicked off in mid-May with the Driving Combined Test, and from there we never looked back. In every weather condition imaginable (sleet, wind, heavy rain, and baking sun) drivers and riders in all disciplines were unanimous in their praise of the new arena footing. Feedback from competitors, trainers and spectators was universally positive and support poured in resulting in donations totaling $127,000 of the $149,000 cost of the Footing Upgrade Project. Part of this was raised through events such as the spectacular lobster-and-champagne Homecoming Party run by Ruth Poulson in Florida, and the elegant Barbecue Lawn Party at the beautiful home of Jennifer and Tom Eddy in Massachusetts. The ability to have fun while working for a cause exemplifies the GMHA spirit. A second, and final, phase of the Cross Country Upgrade ran simultaneously with the Footing Upgrade, with our enthusiastic event supporters investing a further $26,000 in course improvements. Beginner Novice through Intermediate, GMHA is without doubt the go-to venue for eventers in the North East, as evidenced by the waitlist for every event.

Donations to the Annual fund were, however, significantly lower in 2013 as people gave to specific campaigns such as the Footing and Cross Country Upgrade projects. In 2014, it is intended that the Annual Fund be the only GMHA fundraising campaign. For those with a long-term vision, Planned Giving is an opportunity for supporters to pledge a part of their estate to GMHA by joining the Silver Stirrup Legacy Society. This year another nine people joined this special group bringing membership to 23. By doing so, they endorse what GMHA stands for, and commit to the preservation of this special, precious place.

Individual membership numbers increased in 2013, and business memberships were up for a third year in a row. This, coupled with excellent event entries and generous donations (and no natural disasters), meant that we were able to fund additional capital projects such as repainting the GMHA office building, and reroofing part of the historic Upwey barn. Additionally, we were able to continue to support the community. The GMHA grounds were made available, and staff assisted with fundraisers held by CVDA, Ride for the Cure, and High Horses Therapeutic Riding Center. Young riders received over $14,000 in grants and awards to participate in equestrian activities. Going forward, we will be looking to place emphasis on making GMHA accessible to even more people by building partnerships in the community.

In some ways, my first season at GMHA has been very much what I expected: challenging, exhausting, exciting and rewarding. In other ways, it has exceeded my expectations. The staff are outstanding in their work ethic, expertise and commitment. The passion and generosity of those associated with GMHA is overwhelming and the welcome and support I have received from everyone is humbling. I am looking forward to 2014 when GMHA will be even "Better, not Bigger"!

Trail Projects in Review

Trail easement activity in the last year reflects the surge of interest in GMHA's Trail and Open Space Preservation Program. Fourteen trails on five properties have been permanently protected for a grand total of 23 since the work began in late 2009. We have five commitments in hand for easements in the coming year and more projects of interest being pursued. Here is a reminder of our recent donors:

Linda Johnson, West Windsor

Reeves Trail

Molly, Jane and Carlisle Spencer, West Windsor

Caper Hill Farm Trails

Reeves Trail and Bonnie's Trail

Frank and Rosemary Moore, West Windsor

Windfarm Trails

Anonymous, Hartland

Deepest gratitude goes out to all of our Trail Donors... Thank you for your land legacy!

We are happy to report that trail maintenance needs in 2013 have been minimal! After an initial bout of saturated soils causing some downed trees in early summer and a few more this fall, the trails have held up beautifully. And more good news for Members Loop #5, a section of which has been closed off to riders for the last three years. After negotiating with the landowner through current real estate agency, LandVest, we now have written permission to resume equestrian riding through the former "Lady in the Swing" trail. A contractor has been hired to clear many fallen trees and brush hog. The trail will be reopened for 2014 and Members Loop #5 will once again be the long, lovely ride it always was. We plan to publish a NEW Members Loop Map on Tyvec paper for 2014!
