

Junior Horsemanship Clinic ANNUAL AWARDS

SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

Given to the participant demonstrating the most outstanding sportsmanship during JHC. This person is enthusiastic, generous of attitude, adheres to the rules of the sport, courteous to all and supportive of other riders and their achievements.

ANN ROGERS ACKLEY HORSEMANSHIP AWARD

$100 Cash Award: Based on merit of the daily stable management evaluations.

THE SUNSHINE AWARD

In recognition of a JHC participant who demonstrated an optimistic and positive attitude through out the entire clinic.

EILEEN WILMOT AWARD

Awarded to the rider who showed most improvement throughout the clinic.

ELIZABETH BOOTH AWARD

Who has demonstrated overall clinic accomplishment, has contributed significantly to the camp experience for the other participants and has set a high standard for the others to emulate.

BELL-WOOD AWARD

Given to the clinic participant who best brings together his or her talent with the horse in a harmonious performance working calmly, confidently, and energetically.

PAULA EASTON AWARD OF EXCELLENCE

Who best demonstrates the standards of excellence exhibited by our donor, Paula Easton, for her lifetime belief & commitment in the equine – partnership – responsibility to the horse & willingness to share knowledge with others.

GALLOPING “SOPHA” AWARD

Awarded to the horse that best emulates a suitable mount for a young rider developing horsemanship skills, both mounted and un-mounted. In honor of a horse named “Sophia” whom many campers borrowed over the years!

Junior Horsemanship Clinic

JOG OUT AWARDS

- Best Turned-Out Rider/Horse

- Best Jog